Re: Class Action
Atlanta, GA 30304

Dear Mr. Wilson:

On November 16, 1982, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1981 National Agreement.

The question raised in this grievance involved whether employees in the word processing unit at the Atlanta office should be given their pay checks on the day before pay day.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. We agreed that an answer to the question raised requires application of the provisions of Handbook F-1, Section 445, rather than an interpretation.

Accordingly, as we further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at step 3 for further processing if necessary.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver
