Dear Mr. Wilson:

On February 7, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question in this grievance is whether management properly required the grievant to key mail after returning from a break.

On a nonprecedent and noncitable basis and without prejudice to the position of either party, the parties at the national level agree to the following as final settlement of this grievance:

Management properly instructed the grievant to return to the MPLSM to key mail as fifteen minutes had lapsed since the grievant had previously performed the keying function.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Lang
