Dear Mr. Newman:

On June 12, 1979, we met on the above-captioned case at the fourth step the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1978 National Agreement.

During our discussion we mutually agreed that there is no interpretative dispute between the parties at the National level as to the meaning and intent of the provision set forth in publication 118 regarding unused hours not being interchangeable between manual scheme training time and machine training time.

Accordingly, as further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to step three for further discussion and resolution by the parties at that level.

Please sign a copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of the agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

W. E. Henry
