Dear Mr. Wilson:

On November 8, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question raised in this grievance involved whether or not the grievant was qualified for promotion to a clerk/carrier position by virtue of having taken the examination even though her examination score had not been made available to management.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. We agreed that whether the grievant was qualified -- had taken and passed the required examination -- at a specific point in time is not a question that requires national interpretation.

Accordingly, as we further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at Step 3 for further processing and arbitration, if necessary.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver
