Dear Mr. Connors:

On February 13, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1981 National Agreement.

The question raised in this grievance involved whether employee was given proper study time for changes and corrections on her scheme.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. Whether the provisions of 435.1 of the M-5 Manual were followed in this case is a matter for regional determination.

Accordingly, as we further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at Step 3 for further processing, if necessary.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Barbara J. Lerch

Dear Mr. Wilson:

This is to memorialize the parties understanding regarding the input of the Vancouver, Washington, Local of the American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO, in implementing the pre-arbitration settlement of the above-referenced cases.

Chapter 2 of the Methods Handbook/Series M-5 provides for employee input, through a local scheme committee, with regard to scheme assignments and scheme examinations. The Postal Service encourages employee participation at the Vancouver office in implementing our agreement to the extent and in the manner set forth in the aforementioned provisions of the M-5. The Vancouver local should designate the employee member(s) of the local scheme committee. XU

Very truly yours,

James D. Burroughs
