Dear Mr. Tunstall:

On several occasions the latest being December 22, 1987, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievances at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question in these grievances is whether the grievants are entitled to be paid for the time spent studying and passing the scheme(s).

During our discussion, we mutually agreed to full and final settlement of these cases without precedent or prejudice to the position of either party and that this settlement applies only to these specific cases. It was also agreed that this settlement will not be cited in any future grievance or arbitration, or forum, or used for any other purpose whatsoever. The settlement is as follows:

1. The three grievants shall be compensated for scheme study time spent on the specific scheme(s) cited and passed in the grievances for which they received no compensation.
2. These cases will be remanded to the local level to determine the appropriate amount of compensation.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Samuel M. Pulcrano
