Dear Mr. Baldwin:

On December 8, 1981, we met on the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1978 National Agreement.

The question raised in this grievance involves whether or not a replacement for a regular replacement supervisor improperly performed an EDIT.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case.

Accordingly, as we further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at Step 3 for further processing if necessary.

Please sign a copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver
Labor Relations Department

Dear Mr. Baldwin:

On October 20, 1982, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

The question raised in this grievance involved the placing of employees' names on R-3 Reports and alleged improper use of those reports.

During our discussion, we agreed to resolve this case based on our understanding that information from R-3 Reports will not be used as a sole basis for discipline and that the reports will not be used to replace EDITS.

Please sign and return the attached copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver
