Dear Mr. Anderson:

On March 27, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1981 National Agreement.

The question raised in this grievance involved whether the grievant is entitled to higher level pay for performing the Data Collection tests.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. Whether or not the duties performed by the grievant warrant higher level pay is an issue suitable for regional determination based on the specific fact circumstances.

Therefore, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at Step 3 for further processing if necessary.

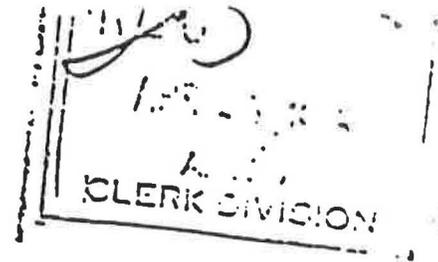

Please sign and return a copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Brenda K. Butler Gerald Anderson

Dear Mr. Anderson:

On March 27, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1981 National Agreement.

This question raised in this grievance involved whether management properly applied the canvas list to the training of Data Cage Technicians in New Haven, CT.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. Whether the canvas list was properly applied is a matter suitable for regional determination.

Accordingly, as we further agreed, this case is hereby remanded to the parties at Step 3 for further processing if necessary.

Please sign and return a copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Brenda K. Butler
