Re: Class Action
Fort Wayne, IN 46802
H1C-4G-C 33510

Dear Mr. Anderson:

On February 5, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the National Agreement.

The issue in this grievance is whether management is properly disallowing employees to leave their assignments to view bulletin boards.

After further review of this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented as to the meaning and intent of Article 37 of the National Agreement. Whether sufficient time is available to employees to view bulletin boards during their breaks or when released by management is an issue suitable for regional determination based on the fact circumstances.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to Step 3 for further consideration by the parties.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this grievance.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Muriel Aikens

Re: Class Action
 Warsaw, IN 46580
 E4C-4G-C 25923

Dear Mr. Guffey:

On September 9, 1987, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether management is required to provide a bulletin board for union use in every work location in order to comply with Article 22 of the National Agreement.

After reviewing this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in this case. We further agreed that this issue is suitable for regional determination with the understanding that we are obligated to post certain notices in every work location by Postal Regulations and Federal law.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to the parties at Step 3 for further processing, including arbitration if necessary.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,
