Dear Mr. Hopton:

On September 16, 1981, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

During our discussion, we agreed to resolve this case based on our understanding that the meaning and intent of Article XXVI, Section 4, is that coveralls may be worn at the option of the employee.

Please sign the attached copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver

Re: Class Action

Dear Mr. Morgen:

On March 1, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether employees in the secondary flat operation should be provided with a uniform allowance.

After further review of this matter, we agreed that there was no national interpretive issue fairly presented as to the meaning and intent of Article 26 of the National Agreement. This is a local dispute over the application of 582.14 ELM to determine whether the employees involved should have aprons for the duties performed in the secondary flat operation.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to Step 3 for further consideration by the parties.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as acknowledgment of our agreement to remand this grievance.

Sincerely,

Daniel A. Kahn
