Dear Mr. Anderson:

On August 13, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

This grievance involves the selection of a best-qualified applicant for the position of Data Collection Technician, rather than selecting the grievant who had been detailed to a Data Collection position "off and on" for the past two years.

During our discussion, you agreed to withdraw this case from the grievance-arbitration procedure. This action is without prejudice to the position of either party.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to withdraw this case.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Ross:

On November 5, 1982, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

This grievance resulted from a requirement that Forms 991A and B be submitted in application for a "best-qualified" position.

During our discussion, we agreed to resolve this case based on our mutual understanding that a contractual violation did not occur.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,
