Dear Mr. Anderson:

On March 11, 1982, we met to discuss the above-captioned case at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

The question raised in this grievance is whether or not management violated Article 33 by not selecting the grievant for an MPE Mechanic position.

A review of the information provided did not establish that a contractual violation occurred in this case. The grievant was evaluated for the position by a review board. The review board found that he did not meet the basic qualifications for the position and did not recommend him for selection. Inasmuch as he was not qualified for the position, his non-selection was proper.

Accordingly, the grievance is denied.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver

Dear Mr. Anderson:

On several occasions, the most recent being on September 22, 1982, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

After thorough discussion of this grievance, the parties at the National level agree that the position of Office Staff Assistant was improperly posted and filled in this case. In this regard, the position shall be vacated.

The parties further agree that other issues involved are not of a nationally interpretive nature. Any further discussion or resolution of this matter should be between the parties at the local level.

Please sign the attached copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Eugene
