Dear Mr. Tunstall:

On several occasions, the most recent being August 19, 1986, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether management improperly recorded employee names on the SOS reports.

During our discussion, we mutually agreed that the following constitutes full and final settlement of this case:

The subject form is not used to measure individual performance, but is utilized solely to isolate problem areas that are due to mechanical or operator errors. This information cannot be used as a basis for discipline, rather it is used to improve the efficiency of the MPLSM operation.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Muriel A. Aikens
