Dear Mr. Tunstall:

On December 14, 1989, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether Article 37.1.K. is intended to provide for the assignment of employees to work schemes from which they have previously bid.

After reviewing this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in this case. We further agreed that the intent of defining the term "live record" in Article 37.1.K was for bidding purposes only.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to the parties at Step 3 for further processing, including arbitration if necessary.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

David A. Stanton

Dear Mr. Tunstall:

On May 25, 1990, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance involves when the grievant was restricted from further bidding.

After reviewing this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in this case. The parties at this level agreed that the grievant was restricted from further bidding as of September 10, 1988, the date of her promotion to Distribution Clerk, Machine as reflected on the Personnel Action, PS Form 50. We further agreed that the grievant would be considered live on a bid submitted prior to that date, provided she was fully qualified as of September 10, 1988, and provided she notified management of her intention to remain a bidder pursuant to Article 37.3.F.8.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to the parties at Step 3 for application of this agreement.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

Wayne L. Eggman
