Dear Mr. Anderson:

On several occasions, the most recent being on September 22, 1982, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

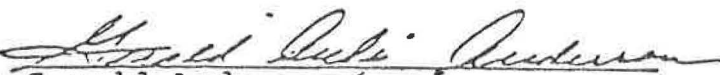

After thorough discussion of this grievance, the parties at the National level agree that the position of Office Staff Assistant was improperly posted and filled in this case. In this regard, the position shall be vacated.

The parties further agree that other issues involved are not of a nationally interpretive nature. Any further discussion or resolution of this matter should be between the parties at the local level.

Please sign the attached copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to resolve this case.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Eugene
Labor Relations Department

Re: See Attached List

Dear Mr. Wilson:

On August 24, 1983, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievances at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in these grievances is whether the selection of on-the-job trainers (OJT) for CFS operations in the local office was conducted properly.

After further review of the matter, we agreed that there was no national interpretive issue fairly presented as to the meaning and intent of Article 37 of the National Agreement.

The parties at this level agree that the selection of OJT instructors is a purely local function and, as such, it is suitable for regional determination. Personnel Handbook P-23 should be reviewed when discussing this case again at Step 3.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand these cases to Step 3 for further consideration by the parties.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as acknowledgment of our agreement to remand these grievances.

Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

A. J. Johnson
