Dear Mr. Wevodau:

On May 2, 1985, we met with your representative to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of the contractual grievance procedure set forth in the 1981 National Agreement.

The issue in this grievance is whether employees were sent for developmental training in accord with Article 38.

After reviewing this matter, we mutually agreed that no national interpretive issue is fairly presented in the particulars evidenced in this case. There is no dispute between the parties relative to the meaning and intent of the provisions of Article 38.3.B.2 and its application to the fact circumstances involved in this case.

Accordingly, we agreed to remand this case to the parties at Step 3 for further processing if necessary.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to remand this case.

Sincerely,

Margaret H. Oliver
