Dear Mr. Wevodau:

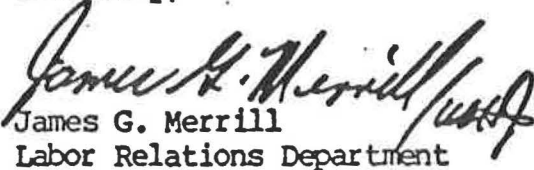

On March 4, 1977, we met with you to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The matters presented by you as well as the applicable contractual provisions have been reviewed and given careful consideration.

Please be advised that the United States Postal Service concurs that the employee's bid position no longer exists when his hours are changed by eight hours or more. This change establishes a new position on another tour which contemplates the requirement of posting. Other significant changes affecting assignments should be processed in accordance with the appropriate portions of Article XXXVIII of the National Agreement and any applicable Memoranda of Understanding.

We trust that this resolves the grievance at hand.

Sincerely,

James G. Merrill
Labor Relations Department
