Re: Class Action
Clearwater, FL 33515
H1C-3W-C 30319

Dear Mr. Anderson:

On April 4, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question raised in this grievance is whether or not management properly assigned duties requiring schéme knowledge to an employee serving a casual appointment.

It is our understanding the subject employee has been given a career appointment. Therefore, we agreed to administratively close this case. We further agreed that this action is without precedent and without prejudice to the position of either party, and may not be cited by either party in any future grievance, hearing, arbitration or for any other purpose whatsoever.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of the agreement to consider this case closed.
