Dear Mr. Wevodau:

On January 12, 1987, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether part-time regular employees are entitled to overtime for work performed in excess of their normal schedule but not in excess of 8 hours per day or 40 hours per week.

During our discussion, we mutually agreed to close this case based on the following:

The parties at this level recognize that part-time regular employees are not entitled to overtime pay until the work performed exceeds 8 hours in a day or 40 hours in a week.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as your acknowledgment of agreement to close this case.

> Time limits were extended by mutual consent.

Sincerely,

James W. Bledsoe
