Dear Mr. Wilson:

On August 5, 1983, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The grievance concerns local managements' method of using the union president's name in the subject heading of grievances filed on behalf of the union. See below:

Subject: Step 2 meeting (Stafford)
Local Grievance #107-83

We mutually agreed that there is nothing contractually improper about management indicating the name, in parenthesis, of the steward who filed the union grievance on the subject line of the Step 2 answer.

To use the union president's name when he did not file the grievance and does not desire that his name be used, under the circumstances, seems arbitrary and not conducive to good labor-management relations.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this decision as acknowledgment that the above resolves this grievance.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Eugene
