H1C-3A-C 30906

Dear Mr. Connors:

On March 28, 1984, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The question in this grievance is whether management is properly using a locally developed form to document resolutions concerning employees complaints.

On a nonprecedent and noncitable basis and without prejudice to the position of either party, the parties at the national level agree to the following as final settlement of this grievance:

Use of the subject form is proper, however, for a grievance to be properly settled or adjusted at Step 2, the union must concur with the agreement.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Lang
