

Time to 'Gear Up!' on the Work Room Floor!

As the National Negotiations Committee bargains for a new union contract with postal management, showing union pride is more important than ever! Show your support for APWU - Our Union, Our Contract, Our Future by wearing union gear on the work room floor.

During negotiations, we are fighting for a good union contract that secures fair wage increases, protects COLAs, retains the no-layoff clause, secures more career jobs, addresses workplace harassment, and much more. We are also fighting against management's goals of increased subcontracting and reduced service.

Your support on the work room floor is crucial during negotiations. The NNC needs all of us to show our united strength in the demand for a good union contract. That's why it's so important to show union pride and 'Gear Up' on Thursdays by wearing union t-shirts, stickers, wristbands, and other apparel!

Contact your local union office if you need wristbands.

Make sure to take photos!
Take a selfie or group picture with your coworkers while wearing the sticker or other union gear and email it to nccc@apwu.org. Post photos on social media and tag @APWUNational!
